Liona Boyd, "The First Lady of the Classical Guitar", has enthralled millions with her unique brand of classical, folk and world music. A five time Juno award winner, Liona Boyd has recorded twenty-seven albums and has over four million views on YouTube. Liona is performing with The Sunpennies Choir led by Gravenhurst Conductor, Dan McCoy.

Tickets: $35 (Not included in our regular season)

Sunday October 22 at 2:00pm

Duo Concertante. An artist "so genuinely interesting to listen to, one forgets how good her technique is", violinist Nancy Dahn has created an international career with pianist/husband Timothy Steeves. His solo performances have been praised for their expressiveness, beautiful sense of line and nuance, and stunning colour.

Sunday, November 19 at 2:00pm

Voice of a Nation is a collaborative family concert featuring indigenous artists. Presented by the Toronto Concert Orchestra led by Kerry Stratton, in recognition of Canada's 150th year, this concert highlights Métis music and poetry sung by indigenous artists and the Mnjikaning Kendaaswin Elementary School choir from Chippewas of Rama First Nation.

Metropolitan Silver Band. Founded in 1931, this lively band plays only brass and percussion instruments. Their repertoire includes classics, marches, selections from the great musicals, religious works, pop, and contemporary pieces.

Sunday, May 6 at 7:00pm

Broadway... Heather Bambrick, Diane Leah and Julie Michels combine their musical experience in a show that is eclectic, funny and very musical! Their repertoire ranges from jazz and theatre, to pop and classical...all delivered with passion, power, poignancy, and plenty of humour!

Welcome to the historic SEVENTY-FIRST SEASON of great music presented by the Muskoka Concert Association! We are very pleased that each concert will include a thirty-minute performance by a local youth artist.
